Among the features of "The Clansman's" tour last season was the indorsement and patronage of the play by the Governors of half a dozen Southern orn States. At least two of these chief executives came out in public states ments warmly commending the play for its historical accuracy. Among the Covernors who indorsed it were Swanson, of Virginia; Glenn, of North Carolina, and Lanham, of Texas.

The Clansman' will return to the Academy on Saturday, matinee and night, Governor Swanson and party will occupy one of the boxes.

Miss Thurster W.

Miss Thurston Here.

Miss Adelaide Thurston will be at the Academy to-day, matinee and night, presenting her play, "The Girl From Out Yonder," a comedy drama in four acts, with the scenes laid along the coast of Maine and the characters those of the fisher-folk who make their living in those places. Miss Thurston plays the part of a young girl who has lived all her seventeen vears among the surroundings of a lighthouse on a rocky island off the coast of Maine. She is somewhat deficient in the graces and manners of society, but is strong in whole-hearted honesty of purpose. She loves her father and she loves the sea. The character is like none that Miss Thurston has ever been seen in before, but it is fresh, wholesome and as attractive as is the personality of the actress herself.
